Good Governance

World Bank Concept

- Political accountability, including the acceptability of political system by the people and regular elections.
- Freedom of association and participation by various groups in the process of Governance.
- Bureaucratic accountability and commitment towards public interest
- Freedom of information and expression including openness and transparency

How to face this Challenge

- Participation of the Civil Society in public decision making
- Effective Corporate regulatory frameworks in Enterprises
- Anti-corruption laws for establishing integrity and morality
- Public financial Management for balancing government expenditure and welfare fund
- Legal and judicial reforms needed for speedy system and trial

Initiatives

- Right to Information Act, 2005 bring in transparency and eradicate of corruption by civil society direct involvement.
- Citizen Charter represents the commitment of the Organisation towards quality, time frame of service delivery and accountability.
- National e-Governance Plan to make all government services available to the citizens of India via electronic media.
- Unique Identification Number mandatory for income tax filings, bank accounts etc.
- Reforms under Second ARC blueprint for revamping the public administrative system
- PM's award for Excellence in Public Administration to reward the extraordinary work done by Government officers

© IAS EXAM PORTAL .COM